8TH ANNUAL

CALLAWAY youth expo

The Callaway Youth Expo board would like to thank each and every one of our Sponsors, donors and volunteers who make this event possible. It is exciting to see what our youth in 4-H and FFA will bring us this year! They have worked hard on their home arts and livestock projects and are proud to show case them at the CYE.

Inset taken at 2019 Callaway Youth Expo

The Callaway Youth Expo wants to hear from you! Feel free to approach any CYE board member with suggestions, opportunities; anything you feel will help us reach our goals for the community and our youth.

Many Thanks,

2019/2020 Callaway Youth Expo Board

Callaway Youth Expo
4-H / FFA General Livestock Rules

Livestock Superintendent: Larry Henneke (573) 220-7915, Assistant: Chip Kemp (573) 239-0524

	The following rules and regulations are to be followed by each 4-H and FFA member when he or she exhibits his or her Livestock or Hams at the Callaway Youth Expo.
1.	A pre-registration form may be required for your species. Check entry forms for requirements. All animals must be in place at the time specified under your project. See livestock superintendent for pen assignments.
2.	A member must be enrolled in the project in which he or she exhibits. All 4-H members and FFA members must be a member in good standing with their clubs or chapters.
3.	4-H Food Quality Assurance Policy All 4-H members enrolled in food animal projects (including beef, sheep, swine, dairy cattle, meat and dairy goats, rabbits, hams & bacon, and poultry) must complete the appropriate level of Missouri Show Me Quality Assurance (MSMQA) certification to be considered a 4-H member in good standing in that project. Other county good standing guidelines may also apply. Check with your local 4-H youth specialist for current local guidelines. The online tutorial is available at: agebb.missouri.edu/smqa/.
4.	Showing animals Livestock must be shown by the member unless granted permission by the livestock committee or if the member has more than one animal in the same weight division.
5.	1. Ownership of livestock animals must be accomplished by the date shown. One of the objectives in owning an animal is to learn new skills in animal breeding, feeding, management and health. To accomplish this, the member should secure the animal as early in the year as possible. This is required for exhibition by the 4-H/FFA member. 2. Ownership dates: January 1 Steers, Market Heifers and Bucket Calves March 1 Hatch date for poultry (not including market poultry) April 1 Dog May 1 Sheep, Goat, Rabbits, Dairy Cattle, Horses, Swine, Poultry, Beef breeding animals 3. A Program year runs from October to September (example: 2018 program year runs from October 1, 2018 to September 30, 2019.)
6.	All 4-H and FFA market animals must be weighed-in at official weigh-in times (when applicable) as designated by the Livestock Committee and state in this book under each species.
7.	Sheep and goats must be identified with a scrapie tag or tattoo, and have health papers.
8.	All animals showing for champion must have received a blue ribbon in their class.
9.	All awards and cash prizes will be awarded to the winners of each show, and is not dependent on their county of membership.
10.	All exhibitors are expected to keep their exhibit area, including walking, path, clean and free of manure and debris.
11.	No animal that shows signs of pregnancy can show in any CYE market show.
12.	No single animal can show in both the breeding show and the market show in the same year's Callaway Youth Expo.
13.	Animals showing clinical evidence of disease will not be permitted to show and shall be subject to isolation or expulsion, depending upon the nature and seriousness of the disease.
14.	All animals must remain stalled on the grounds through the completion of the respective show in which they are registered. No animal can load or leave the grounds until the completion of their respective show. The grand and reserve champion from each show need to stay throughout the whole fair other than chickens & rabbits.
15.	Failure to comply with these or any other rules will result in forfeiture of all premiums earned.
16.	If any information is inadvertently omitted or incorrectly printed, the 4-H and FFA Superintendents have the final say.
